

Where the farmer grows many, many acres of corn, he uses the big MM Huskor to harvest his corn two rows at a time. The corn is put in wagons and then stored in corn cribs as shown on next page.

